CLINICIAN

Janie Brokenicky is in her 19th year as a music educator. In addition to being the Director of Choirs and Musical Theater at Rock Creek High School, she serves as the executive director and co-founder of the Flint Hills Youth Choirs, a community organization for voices grades 3-12 based in Manhattan. FHYC has been selected to perform at KMEA three times and has traveled both nationally and internationally to St. Louis, New York, Omaha, Scotland, and Canada. This spring break they will be collaborating with a local children's choir in Costa Rica.

She began her music teaching career in 2007 at Riley County High School before moving to Tabor College in 2012. She returned to her alma mater, K-State, in 2015 as a voice and music theory instructor. Amidst the COVID pandemic, Brokenicky returned to public education, spending a year directing the choirs at USD 320 Wamego before moving to Rock Creek in 2021. She is a frequent guest clinician and adjudicator in Missouri and Kansas and serves on the Kansas Choral Directors Association board as treasurer. Brokenicky holds degrees in music education, mathematics, choral conducting and vocal performance, and is an accomplished oboist.

Ms. Brokenicky is also an active soprano soloist. She has been featured at the Meyerson Symphony Hall (Dallas), Kauffman Center, and Folly Theater (Kansas City), and has been a guest artist with the Wichita Grand Opera, Wichita Chamber Chorale, Hays Symphony Orchestra, Flint Hills Masterworks Chorale, Kansas State University Orchestra, and served eight summers as artist-in-residence for the Ad Astra Summer Music Festival. Most recently she performed as soprano soloist for the Brahms' German Requiem with the Topeka and Lawrence Civic Choirs and Kurt Weill's The Seven Deadly Sins with the Salina Symphony and conductor Yaniv Segal. None of this would be possible without the unwavering support of her husband Cole and two children, Ava and Ethan.

COLLABORATIVE ARTIST

Cindy Anthony is a former elementary music and Spanish teacher, retiring in 2024 after 42 years in education. She is active in KMEA, having served as SCKMEA District Elementary Chair for 4 years. She is a member of KCDA where she served as the co-chair for the Women's Honor Choir for 4 years and received the Harry Robert Wilson Lifetime Achievement Award. She and her husband, Kent, are the parents of three daughters who are all educators: Kristen Howie (Adrian); Janie Brokenicky (Cole); and Holly Baalman (Chad); and grandparents to eight awesome grandkids!
