CLINICIAN

Gretchen Harrison, National ACDA Chairperson for Repertoire and Resources, is a Missouri-born, Kansas-educated, veteran choral educator, conductor and clinician. Proud to come from a strong choral music heritage, Harrison is the middle generation of a 3-generation ACDA family. She followed in her dad's footsteps as "teacher-mentor" with joy! She loves a rehearsal based on love, excellence, urgency, laughter, respect, high expectations, silliness and, hopefully, dark chocolate!

Harrison has served ACDA as Kansas Chair for JHMS Repertoire and Standards (KS), as the National Chair for JHMS Repertoire and Standards, then Resources, as the first Youth Choirs Coordinator and, now, as the National Chair. Harrison earned degrees from Wichita State University (BME) and the University of Missouri-Kansas City (MME) and has 60+ additional hours of study. Professionally, Harrison retired after teaching public school middle school choir for 34 years. She is the 2023 recipient of the "Harry Robert Wilson Award", an award by the Kansas ACDA chapter to recognize lifelong achievement. She has served as the administrator of the Allegro Choirs of Kansas City community choir program and is excited to be the new director of Adoration, a treble choir at the Church of the Resurrection, in Leawood, KS.
