CLINICIANS

Eric Stambaugh- Middle School Band

Director of Hutchinson Community College Bands, Eric Stambaugh is in his 26th year of teaching and 5th year directing at HCC. His job duties include Symphonic Band, Pep Band, Music Appreciation, and Music Theory. Eric is a graduate of Kansas State University where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees in music education and Wind Conducting. Eric has won the KBA Outstanding Young Band Director Award, SCKMEA Outstanding Director, Finalist for HCC Educator of the Year, and was Semifinalist for Kansas Teacher of the Year. His professional memberships include Kansas Bandmasters Association, Kansas Music Educators Association, and NAfME.

Russell Adrian- Middle School Choir

Russell Adrian, D.M.A., serves as the Director of Choral Activities and Associate Professor of Music at Bethel College. He conducts Chamber Singers, Concert Choir, and Chapel Choir along with teaching Conducting, Vocal Methods, Music Technology, and Music Theory. Prior to joining the Bethel College music faculty in 2025, he held positions at Hesston College and Western Mennonite School (Salem, Oregon). He earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from the University of Minnesota (Minneapolis), Master of Music degree in choral conducting from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and graduated from Bethel College (North Newton, Kan.) with degrees in music and mathematics. Additionally, he leads music at Tabor Mennonite Church.

CLINICIANS

Lisa Hittle-56A Jazz Band

Lisa Hittle is Professor Emeritus at Friends University where she was Director of Jazz Programs for 30 years. Lisa taught and/or oversaw two full jazz ensembles, several jazz combos, jazz improvisation classes, jazz pedagogy and literature and applied saxophone. Ms. Hittle is an alumnus of the Stan Kenton Orchestra, an active jazz musician in the Wichita area and adjudicator/clinician throughout the mid-west. The Wichita Arts Council selected Lisa as the 2006 Wichita Arts Educator of the Year and the Wichita Jazz Festival selected her in 2012 to receive the Homer Osborne award for outstanding contributions to jazz education.

Ryan Heinlein- 1234A Jazz Band

Ryan Heinlein recently completed coursework for his Doctorate of Musical Arts at the Conservatory of Music and Dance at The University of Missouri-Kansas City. He received his bachelors and masters degree in trombone performance from Wichita State University. He began playing trombone at the age of eleven and has been playing professionally since the age of fifteen. As a performer, Ryan is known as one of the most versatile trombonists in the Kansas City area and has quickly become a first call musician for all genres.

Ryan performs regularly with the Marcus Lewis Big Band, The Band That Saved The World and Next Level Live. He has also performed with The Kansas City Jazz Orchestra, The Northland Symphony, Parranderos Latin Combo, Julian Vaughn, Michael Feinstein, the Tommy Dorsey orchestra, the Harry James orchestra and can be seen playing with area rock, reggae, funk, R&B and hip hop acts. As an educator, Ryan is the former director of instrumental music at The Independent School in Wichita. He has held adjunct music instructor positions at Butler Community College, Avila University, Ottawa University and Friends University. He has been an adjudicator for the Wichita Jazz Festival, the Washburn Jazz Festival, the Mid-Kansas symphonic festival and the Goddard Festival of Bands marching competition. Ryan is currently Assistant Professor of Music at Johnson County Community College.
