CLINICIANS

Katelyn Peterson, Treble Choir

Katelyn H. Peterson is Associate Director of Choral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music Education at Wichita State University. She earned her Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA) in Choral Conducting from the University of Iowa in 2025, where she conducted the Voxman Chorale and Camerata Singers and pursued secondary emphases in Music Education and Voice Performance.

Prior to her doctoral studies, she completed a Master of Music in Choral Conducting at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2022, studying with Dr. Zachary Durlam and conducting Alta Voce and opera choruses. She holds a Bachelor of Music Education with emphases in Choral and General Music from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls.

Peterson brings more than a decade of K-12 teaching experience, having served students and communities in Milwaukee Public Schools, River Falls School District, and New Richmond School District. As a guest conductor, clinician, and presenter, she has led honor choirs, worked with school and community ensembles, and presented sessions at state, national, and international conferences on topics including choral pedagogy, cultural appropriation, the evolution of the choral spiritual, and music education.

In addition to her teaching, conducting, and research, Peterson serves as Society for Music Teacher Education Chair for the Kansas Music Educators Association (KMEA). Her professional service also includes leadership positions with the Wisconsin Choral Directors Association, Wisconsin School Music Association, and St. Croix Music Educators Association, as well as service as Website Manager for the Midwestern American Choral Directors Association. An avid theatre enthusiast, she has directed numerous middle school, high school, and community theatre productions.

CLINICIANS

Dustin Cates, Mixed Choir

Dustin S. Cates is a teacher, conductor, researcher, and a proud native of Kansas City, Missouri. He is passionate about building meaningful relationships with people through music and empowering future conductor-teachers to discover and embrace their authentic voice. Dr. Cates serves as Associate Professor of Choral Music Education at Temple University's Boyer College of Music and Dance, part of the Center for Performing and Cinematic Arts (Philadelphia, PA).

At Temple, he conducts the University Chorale, supervises graduate students, and teaches courses in music education, choral/vocal pedagogy, and choral methods. A frequent clinician and presenter, Dr. Cates regularly leads professional development workshops for music educators and serves as a guest conductor for honor choirs and music festivals throughout the United States. He holds undergraduate and doctoral degrees in choral music education from the University of Missouri–Kansas City Conservatory and a master's degree from Baker University (Baldwin, KS). Prior to his appointment at Temple, he served as Artistic Director and Conductor of Heartland Men's Chorus (Kansas City, MO), Associate Director of Worship Arts at the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection (Leawood, KS), and taught high school choral music in the Kansas City metropolitan area. Dr. Cates is the former National Repertoire and Resources Chair for Tenor/Bass Choirs for the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), past president of the Kansas Choral Directors Association, and currently serves as ACDA Eastern Region Diversity Initiatives and Conference Chair.
